

TAMARA B. CHARM
358 Washington Street, Apt.1
Somerville, MA 02143
(617) 625-9929
tcharm@mit.edu

Education

- 1999 – present MIT Sloan School of Management Cambridge, MA
Candidate for Master of Business Administration, June 2001
- Program focus: Strategic Management and Applied Economic Analysis
  - Teaching Assistant: Microeconomics and Strategy & Organization, Officer: Socially Responsible Business Club, Co-organizer: Sloan Food Drive
- Summer 1997 London School of Economics
- 1990 – 1994 Johns Hopkins University Baltimore, MD
Bachelor of Arts in Economics and International Studies
- Awards include: Excellence in Economics Award, Barton Cup for Distinguished Moral Leadership, and graduating with General Honors.
  - Elected Chair of Student Activities Commission and Treasurer of Student Council
  - Elected President of Jewish Students Association

Experience

- Summer 2000 McKinsey and Company London, England
Summer Associate
- Evaluated potential joint venture, acquisition, and divestment opportunities for multinational petrochemical company.
  - Developed valuation models for client and potential partner firms' businesses.
  - Worked with top management to clarify business unit's strategy and make recommendation.
- 1998 – 1999 Jewish Orthodox Feminist Alliance New York, NY
Founding Director
- Expanded organization to 950 members in first year of operation.
  - Developed budget of $326,000, coordinated fundraising efforts, and co-wrote successful foundation grant.
  - Initiated and led program development and implementation efforts, including an international program with 38 participating institutions from the U.S. and abroad.
  - Formed and motivated committees, developed agenda and led board meetings.
- 1997 – 1999 Fellow at Drisha Institute for Jewish Studies New York, NY
Studied Babylonian Talmud and Jewish law. Taught classes on torah cantillation.
- 1996 – 1997 Israel/Palestine Center for Research & Information Jerusalem, Israel
Economic Staff / Dorot Fellow
- Developed and planned conference for Israeli, Palestinian, and Jordanian ministry officials to promote the establishment of a trilateral free trade agreement.
  - Worked with academics to produce a joint paper on ideal trilateral trade structure.
  - Chose topics and speakers for monthly roundtables between Israeli and Palestinian ministry officials on specific obstacles to free trade.
  - Worked under auspices of Dorot Fellowship (awarded based on assessment of leadership potential) and concurrently studied at the Pardes Institute for Jewish Studies.
- 1994 – 1996 Ernst & Young LLP Economics Consulting Group Washington, DC
Senior Consultant
- Performed profitability studies for Fortune 500 automotive, chemical, and electronics companies.
  - Managed project teams for client engagements with fees up to $1,000,000
  - Managed client relationships and delivered oral and written executive presentations.
  - Created and implemented training program for new consultants.
  - Analyzed financial statement data and industry research to evaluate transfer-pricing policies.
  - Promoted from Staff to Senior Consultant in one year.

Personal

- Proficient in Hebrew. Basic knowledge of German.